While Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is especially recommended for children, it is, of course, just as good for adults. Children like to take it because it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. Its laxative principle drives the colds from the system by a gentle, natural, yet copious action of the bowels. Sold by Crenshaw & Young.

Miss Margaret Wels returned Friday evening from a visit of several weeks in Kansas City.

Miss Lena David of St. Joseph arrived Sunday evening for a several weeks' visit with friends.

Miss Lucy Graham of Buckner arrived Friday evening for a visit with relatives in this city.

Active at 87.

This would not be unusual news if men and women would keep themselves free from rheumatism and all aches and pains as well as keeping their muscles and joints limber with Ballard's Snow Liniment. Sold by Crenshaw & Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Barron of Kansas City arrived Friday evening to visit relatives for a few days.

Miss Eva Frick of Kansas City arrived Friday evening for a visit of several days with friends here.

Horace Bolton of Guthrie, Okla., arrived Monday evening to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

For Sore Feet.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts and all manner of abrasions," writes W. Stone of East Poland, Maine. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Crenshaw & Young's drug store. 25 cents.

J. Reid Ryland left Sunday evening for Montgomery, Ala., after a visit of several weeks with relatives here.

Misses Bessie Epps and Birdie McGrew of Waverly came in Friday evening to visit relatives for a few days.

Report of Annual Inspection of Wentworth By U. S. Officer.

Extract of report of inspection of military department of Wentworth Military Academy at Lexington, Mo., made May 7, 1908 by Capt. M. J. Linnehan, General Staff.

Q. If not already classified what classification should be made. A. Already classified, Class "A."

Q. What was general appearance of cadets at inspection? A. Excellent.

Q. Is the efficiency in infantry instruction and training sufficiently advanced to warrant devoting time to instruction in artillery and other branches? A. Yes.

Q. Is the military instruction of such extent and thoroughness as to qualify the average graduate for a commission as Lieutenant of volunteers? A. Yes.

General remarks. The exercises consisted of guard mounting, artillery drill in school of cannoneers dismounted, company and battalion drill closed and extended order, establishment of an outpost, battalion review and inspection, inspection of quarters, mess hall and kitchen. Escort to color, battalion parade, Butt's manual to music and bayonet exercises. The general appearance was excellent. Uniforms in excellent condition, neat and well-fitting. Arms in good and equipments in excellent condition. The artillery drill was good, guard mount was good, company and battalion drill was very good. Review and inspection good. Butt's manual very good and bayonet exercises fair. Rooms neat and orderly. Mess hall and kitchen in excellent condition. Kitchen orderly and scrupulously clean. Escort to color and battalion parade was very good. The general excellent condition reported last year has been maintained.

Save and except a parcel of land taken from the above described land hereunder sold and conveyed to James Grant by deed dated March, 1884, recorded in Book 88, at Page 207 of the records in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Lafayette County, Missouri.

Also one and one quarter (1 1/4) acres more or less off of the East end of a piece of land being same land on which the machinery, plants and buildings of the Waverly Coal & Mining Company are now situated. This one and one quarter (1 1/4) acres, more or less, is further described by metes and bounds as follows:

Beginning at a point where the center of the County road continued in a Southeast direction would cross the center of the Missouri Pacific Railroad right-of-way; thence Southwesterly nine hundred and seventy-five (975) feet; thence Northwesterly four hundred and fifty-seven (457) feet to the center of the Missouri Pacific Railroad right-of-way; thence Easterly along the center of the said right-of-way three hundred and thirty-six (336) feet to the place of beginning, containing one and one quarter (1 1/4) acres more or less.

Also lots eleven (11) and twelve (12), in Block eleven (11) in Saint Thomas Addition to the City of Waverly.

Also lots eleven (11) and twelve (12), in Block eleven (11) in Saint Thomas Addition to the City of Waverly.

Also a part of lot one (1), twenty-eight (28) feet in breadth by fifty (50) feet in length in block eight (8) in the old town of Waverly. Also all the coal and coal rights purchased by Walter W. Taberner from W. P. Milnor on October, 1902, underlying the following described parcels of land situated in Lafayette County, Missouri described as follows:

The [30] acres of the Northwest fractional quarter (1/4); the eight (8) acres on the West side of the Southwest quarter (1/4) of the Northeast quarter (1/4) and the twelve (12) acres in the Northeast corner of the Northeast quarter (1/4) of the Southwest quarter (1/4) all in Section fourteen (14), Township fifty-one (51), Range twenty-four (24), West, together with the right to use such portions of the surface of said described lands for necessary mining purposes; provided that no air shaft or other shaft shall be sunk and no buildings erected within the portion of said lands so enclosed and surrounding the brick house now on the premises or within the orchard now enclosed on said premises.

The property in the last paragraph being also described in the warranty deed from William P. Milnor to Walter W. Taberner, recorded January 22, 1904, in Book 170 at Page 78 of the records in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Lafayette County, Missouri.

Also all rights to mine coal granted to the party of the first part by an ordinance entitled "An ordinance granting the right to the Waverly Coal & Mining Company, a corporation, to mine and remove coal and other minerals from under the streets and alleys of the City of Waverly, Missouri, and providing for a forfeiture of such right," passed by the board of aldermen of the City of Waverly, Missouri, on the 1st day of September, 1902, approved by the mayor of said city on the 1st day of September, 1902, and hereafter published in the official paper of said city.

The real estate above described includes the mines and mining outfit of the party of the first part and also all of the machinery, tools, appliances and apparatus belonging to the party of the first part used or intended to be used in the operation and working of said mines and also all of the following described personal property situated in the County of Lafayette and State of Missouri, to-wit:

One hoisting engine, drum and outfit; two horizontal boilers, one of 25 horse-power and one of 15 horse-power; four Sullivan compressed air mining machines; one blacksmith shop with forge, bellows, anvil and all blacksmith tools and appliances; and all connected with same; fifty-five mine cars of about one ton capacity each, made by the Waverly Foundry Company; one set of Howe Tiptoe scales; two coal screens; one rotary ventilating fan and fan engine of Sullivan make; nine head of mules, being all of the mules used in or about the mines of the party of the first part at Waverly, Missouri; nine sets of single harness; all picks, shovels, and miscellaneous mining and other tools of whatsoever kind used in or about the mines of the party of the first part at Waverly, Missouri; thirty tons of steel mining track "H" rails; all rails and track laid in the mines of the first party at and in the vicinity of Waverly, Missouri, which is not a part of the real estate.

All other implements, tools, machinery and contents of whatsoever kind or nature now used or intended to be used for the purpose of operating the mines of the first party at and in the vicinity of Waverly, Missouri.

All franchises and privileges to mine coal within the corporate limits of the City of Waverly.

All the coal lands now held by the party of the first part in Lafayette County, Missouri, and all leases of coal lands hereafter acquired by it.

All the engines, boilers, mining machines, blacksmith outfit, tools, mine cars, scales, screens, ventilating fans and engine, mules, harness, shovels, mining tools, mining track, "H" rails and other personal property heretofore described, being situated on or adjoining the real property hereinbefore specifically described and known as the mines and mining properties of the Waverly Coal & Mining Company.

A portion of the personal property described in and covered by which said deed of trust is in general terms, is more specifically described as follows, to-wit:

assigns become immediately due and payable, and: WHEREAS, the first four of said notes have not been paid, when and as, by their terms, the same became due and payable, by reason whereof the conditions of said deed have been broken, and the holder of said notes has elected to declare, and did declare the remainder of said notes due and payable under the provisions of said deed of trust; and payment has been refused through duly demanded; and: WHEREAS, said deed of trust further provides, that in case of refusal to act or absence from the State of Missouri, of the said F. P. Seal, that the then sheriff of Lafayette County, Missouri, "shall thereupon become his successor to the title of said property and the same become vested in him, in trust for the purposes and objects of these presents, and with all the powers, duties and obligations thereof;" and: WHEREAS said F. P. Seal has refused to act as said trustee, and is now absent from the State of Missouri. Now therefore, I, Charles F. Kinkead, sheriff of the said County of Lafayette, as substitute trustee, in pursuance of the terms of said deed of trust, at the request of M. McAnany the holder and owner of said notes, between the hours of 9 o'clock A. M. and 5 o'clock P. M. on TUESDAY, THE 18th DAY OF AUGUST, A. D. 1908.

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it is, in fact, the popular Unabridged Dictionary re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation.

We are of the opinion that this allegation more clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation, which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition and that in the future in the past it will be the source of constant reference.
